Briefing

Counsel for the defendants state in their briefing that in the original complaint "the plaintiff was serving an 'unknown' sentence, coupled with the 27- to 84-month sentence" and "seem to imply that she was a pretrial detainee." Also, "plaintiff has not alleged a liberty interest in remaining in the general prison population."

A complaint "should not be dismissed for failure to state a claim unless it appears beyond doubt that the plaintiff can prove no set of facts in support of his claim which would entitle him to relief."
Cruz v. Beta, 405 U.S. 319, 322 (1972)

My complaint(s) show that I was a pretrial detainee who was punished. I stated the concern and effort put forth to resolve the result of the deliberate indifference I was subjected to. I was classified and in general prison population. I was punished for reasons unknown and without any procedures.

furthermore, there are two defendants who are involved in the violation of both my Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights. The motion to dismiss my case should be denied.
